

Are fraudsters using your taxi service?

Are you being asked to take an elderly passenger to London, deliver a package on their behalf, or asked to take them to the bank?

Courier Fraud is where fraudsters call victims pretending to be police officers, tricking them into handing over significant amounts of cash as part of a policing operation. They may encourage victims to travel to London by taxi to facilitate this crime.

THE TRAP

If you are concerned this is happening to your passenger call 101 and quote 'OP RADIUM'. Help us stop courier fraud.
